FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Belstone for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Oliver Keil and his assistants Derreck Coe and Daniel Renton.

I hope you all have had a good summer's break and are looking forward to a new season.

After some success during the second half of the 2023-24 season, which included the winning of the Middlesex Premier Cup, it is therefore pleasing that our manager Rob Russell is carrying on into this campaign and has been able to keep a strong nucleus of last season's squad.

Hopefully, after a few seasons at the wrong end of the table, we will be able to launch a significant push towards promotion.

We know that it will be a tough test especially as there are some very strong sides joining Division One and this includes our opponents this evening Belstone.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

An interesting final note about the 2023-24 season is that two sides were automatically promoted from Division One.

Usually we expect the champions to get the automatic promotion spot and this was Amersham Town.

However, on this occasion the runners-up British Airways also went up to the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Premier Division North.

The other side to go up was the winner of the Division One Play-off final.

This was Berks County, who clinched a 2-1 victory in a tense encounter.

At the other end of the table, Bagshot were relegated to the Surrey Premier League while second from bottom London Colney were switched to the Spartans South Midlands League Division One.

Royston Town have paid homage to the town's heritage in designing their new home shirt, inspired by the enigmatic Royston Cave.

The Southern Premier Central Crows say the unique shirt – to be worn by both the men's and women's teams – depicts the 'captivating pattern' of the Kings Templar, found by accident within the historic Hertfordshire cave in 1792.

The club say the Nike-designed shirt, with its white base and grey pattern replicating the cave's carvings, marks a local landmark steeped in mystery, sparking conversation and igniting curiosity about Royston's rich heritage.

"It's not just about looking good on the pitch, it's about celebrating what makes Royston special," said club chairman Steve Jackson at the unveiling.

"We believe this shirt will not only be a source of pride for our players and fans but also spark interest in the town's fascinating history."

Royston Cave manager Emma Shaw added: "We were thrilled when Royston Town FC approached us about the proposed shirt design.

"It is a wonderful way to celebrate the unique heritage of Royston Cave.

"We hope the shirts are popular with the players and fans alike and wish the teams every success in the upcoming season."
