COMBINED COUNTIES
FOOTBALL LEAGUE

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Oxhey Jets for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Belin Demirov and his assistants Mourad Bougouzi and Michael Oakes.

We probably all agree that we have had a mixed start to the season and are currently lying in 16th position.

It was not ideal that we had to start the season on a Friday evening but Windsor have been told to play on this day because of a ground-sharing agreement, which also involves hosts Beaconsfield Town and CCL Premier Division outfit Hilltop.

Although we played some good football, we allowed Windsor to get back into the game and snatched a 3-2 victory.

Our away game on 6th August against Belstone was switched to our ground because our opponents are still sorting out their floodlights at their Radlett ground. We showed character to come from 1-0 down to bag a 2-1 win.

We were unable to build on this at home to Penn & Tylers Green on Saturday and suffered a disappointing 3-0 defeat although the Buckinghamshire side could be a challenger for promotion.

This evening, we are hosting Oxhey Jets, who have also had a slow start to the campaign where they have lost to current leaders Langley and League newcomers Staines & Lammas. However, they have had one success when they clinched a 1-0 victory over another of our newcomers Windsor & Eton where George Rice scored the winning goal.

Enjoy this evening's game.

FOCUS ON CHARLIE GOODE

Many Brook House supporters will remember the time when central defender Charlie Goode played for us as a youngster when we were known as AFC Hayes.

Charlie also played for Hendon prior to joining Scunthorpe United when they were a Football League side.

He then progressed to Northampton Town but his big move came when he was transferred to Brentford.

This allowed him to play in the Premiership and made 14 appearances for the West London club after joining them in 2020.

During his time at Brentford, Charlie made loan appearances at Sheffield United, Blackpool and Wigan Athletic.

Charlie's contract at Brentford ended at the end of last season and the 29-year-old has now joined EFL League One side Stevenage.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

After just three matches, a pattern is beginning to form at the top and bottom of the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One table.

Langley are the current leaders having won all of their three opening games. The Slough side opened their campaign with a 2-0 home win over Woodley United.

They followed this up with a 3-1 success at London Samurai Rovers and on Saturday clinched a 1-0 victory at home against Oxhey Jets.

Staines & Lammas have also had a winning start but have only played two games, both away. They defeated Oxhey Jets 4-1 and edged past Yateley United by a 1-0 margin.

At the other end of the table, London Samurai Rovers, FC Deportivo Galicia, Woodley United and PFC Victoria are looking for their first point.

VISITING THE BROOK

OXHEY JETS

Matches between Brook House and Oxhey Jets are usually very competitive and the picture above was taken during a 3-3 draw between the two sides.

The clash was in January when Brook House made the trip to the Watford suburb. This was at a time when The Brook were beginning to show some good form but were given a tough test by a Jets side that held its own in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One last season, finishing in 10th. A month earlier, The Brook managed to take all the points with a 4-2 success.

Oxhey Jets won 16 and lost 17 of their 42 matches, with nine draws in 2023-24.

The Euros were – mostly – entertaining, Wimbledon was fine, the Olympics have been exciting...but a huge welcome back to the non-league football season.

It feels like it's been a long summer. And that's because it has been.

The majority of clubs finished their seasons in April. Those lucky few in the play-offs went on for another week or so but, largely, by the second week of May it was all done and dusted.

Clubs had been promoted, cups lifted, Gateshead and Romford had tasted Wembley glory on Non-League Finals day and the goalposts were down.

But now we're back. Properly back (pre-season doesn't count). Over the last couple of weeks Step Five and Six leagues have kicked off, the FA Cup extra preliminary round has taken place and, this weekend, Steps One to Four get their 2024-25 league campaigns up and running.

There's nothing quite like live, competitive, football. We've even already seen goal of the season contenders scored – check out Sam Bantick's strike from inside his own half for Tilbury against Buckhurst Hill in the FA Cup.

Filling the pages of The Non-League Paper through the barren summer months is rarely a challenge.

The beauty of football – and particularly non-league football – is there is always something happening somewhere.

From former Weston-super-Mare loanee Ollie Watkins smashing in a semi-final winner as England reached the Euro 2024 final to the National League's new broadcast deal with DAZN, it's rarely quiet. There have been some eye-catching signings this off-season too. Charlie Austin has returned to his non-league roots by joining AFC Totton.

The former Southampton and QPR striker began his career at Kintbury Rangers before playing for hometown club Hungerford Town and, later, Poole Town where he was spotted by Swindon Town back in 2009.

Since then he's gone on to have a goal laden professional career – even earning a call-up to the England squad – before, aged 35, signing up at the Southern Premier South Stags.

There must be something in the Non-League water at Step Three with another former Premier League scorer also making a similar switch – former Reading hitman Adam Le Fondre has signed on at FC United of Manchester after turning out for Neil Reynolds' side in pre-season.

We've seen plenty go the other way too. Chris Conn-Clark won The Young Player of the Year Award at The NLP's National Game Awards back in May so it was nice to see the Altrincham ace land a move to Peterborough United. Posh have made a habit of finding some real gems in non-league and Conn-Clark has the potential to be another.

How about the story of Marcus Wyllie? The 25-year-old was playing at Risborough Rangers a few years ago. Last season he hit 34 goals as Enfield Town won promotion to the National League South. Gillingham's Peter Taylor saw Wyllie in a friendly against Arsenal earlier in pre-season and just a few days later he was getting his medical at the League Two outfit.
