FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of PFC Victoria for this Middlesex County FA Premier Cup Semi-Final tie along with the referee Nima Hosseinali and his assistants Alan Barrett and David Jones.

I am not sure if I am looking forward to this evening. There is certainly going to be tension in the air.

We all remember the special evening at Hanwell Town last April when we lifted the Middlesex Premier Cup. The match against Rising Ballers Kensington ended in a 1-1 draw and we won the penalty-spot kicks contest by a 4-3 margin.

And so far, we have mounted a successful defence of this Cup and have reached the semi-final stage. This means we probably have the favourites tag to not only reach the final but also to lift the trophy again.

However, remember life is never straightforward at Brook House. Believe me, things have not been made any easier following our 5-0 away victory on Saturday in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One against this evening's opponents PFC Victoria.

It goes without saying PFC Victoria will be looking for revenge for that result, especially as they will want to taste some cup glory.

For this reason, this will not be an easy game for us and I honestly think it will be very close and I am sure all the players on both sides will give it their all.

As you will be aware, our last home game against Woodley United was postponed because of a waterlogged pitch. This has been rescheduled for 1st April at 7.45pm. And finally, enjoy the game, if you can. As I have said, it will be rather tense.

FIXTURE NEWS

Brook House's season will certainly stretch into April but there are currently no signs of three or four matches per week as has been the case in recent campaigns.

The latest re-arranged game was the recently postponed home fixture against Woodley United. This clash has been rescheduled for Tuesday 1st April.

Other games arranged for that month include the two encounters against leaders Windsor & Eton. The home game is on Saturday 5th April and we end the season at Stag Meadow on Saturday 19th April.

In between is the trip to Westside on Wednesday 9th April.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

Belstone strengthened their play-off credentials when they clinched an emphatic 6-0 home victory over Yateley United on Saturday.

Olussegun Adedipe opened the scoring in the fourth minute and the situation worsened for the visitors when Emile Hoffman bagged a hat-trick to give Belstone a 4-0 lead shortly after the hour-mark. Further goals came from Noah Costin and Jubril Hassan.

Windsor & Eton are now nine points clear at the top of the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One table. Their latest success was a 3-1 home win against Rising Ballers Kensington with goals from Ross McKernan, Jatinder Liddar and Pawel Kowallkowski while Omari Hibbert had made it 1-1 for the visitors.

There were two 0-0 draws with the Bedfont v Hillingdon Borough and Chalfont St Peter v Staines & Lammas clashes ending in stalemate.

CHERRY RED RECORDS COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE DIVISION ONE STRUCTURE 2024-25

There were a number of new sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One for the 2024-25 season.

A couple have slipped down from a higher level and it was not long ago Chalfont St Peter were a Step Four outfit.

Several clubs have moved up from Step Seven including the current leaders Windsor & Eton.

Now that is a name which once graced leagues such as the Isthmian in years gone by. But the current version is relatively new.

Another of the newcomers on their way up is Belstone and are currently in a play-off position.

PFC Victoria have made a steady start while Staines & Lammas are slowly finding their feet.

Both Colliers Wood United and Chalfont St Peter are still trying to find their feet at a lower level.

VISITING THE BROOK

PFC VICTORIA

PFC Victoria have had a steady season in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division after their promotion from Step Seven last season.

However, their form has dipped in the past month and have not scored in their last four outings.

This is in contrast to their post-Christmas form when they clinched three consecutive victories against London Samurai Rovers, Windsor and Langley.

Since the Langley 4-3 success, PFC Victoria have suffered defeats against FC Deportivo

Galicia, Woodley United, Bedfont and Brook House, conceding 13 goals and not being able to score themselves. This includes the 5-0 loss at home to Brook House on Saturday.

It has been something of a nomadic campaign for PFC Victoria. They were due to ground share with Ashford Town (Middx) but their Robert Parker Stadium is being upgraded to include an all-weather pitch. This has meant PFC Victoria have had to play their home games at a variety of venues.

THE NON-LEAGUE PAPER

ESSENTIAL READING FOR FOLLOWERS OF THE NATIONAL GAME

In a recent NLP, we spoke exclusively to National League CEO Mark Ives to look deeper into the national 3UP campaign, officially calling for a third promotion spot into the EFL.

Backed by all 72 member clubs at Step One and Two after years of planning, the proposal officially calls for a change in regulations from the current two-up system and has received widespread support from the non-league game.

But, as we've also heard this week, the campaign has also come up against some fierce opposition and there is a lot of convincing left needed to be done if EFL clubs are to vote in favour of the proposal at the EFL's AGM this June.

Ives spoke passionately of the logistics behind the campaign but also warned that unless the matter is addressed now, it risks being kicked down the road for more years to come.

"Why now is a really important question," he told The NLP. "Everybody is aware we've been having conversations privately with the EFL. They've been very constructive, very amiable conversations.

"Then we have the Independent Football Regulator coming in. Whilst there are debates ongoing at the minute between the parliamentary houses and, potentially, up to 400 suggested amendments to the Bill that are being discussed, what is sure is the regulator is coming into play.

"That brings in another dynamic from an EFL point of view because the EFL are saying while they're supportive in principle of this issue, they cannot take this forward until the other footballing matters are dealt with – the current discussions between the PL and the EFL over the wider distribution of monies.

That's a matter for the PL and the EFL, that's not a matter for us.

"We do not see them as being interdependent to the issue of three-up. If you think about them not being able to deal with anything until the matter is resolved between the PL and the EFL, which would potentially mean the regulator, the backstop and everything else kicking into play."

The National League's plea came after a wide-ranging BBC Sport interview with EFL chairman Rick Parry back in November when he accepted the need for change, commenting: "we have to acknowledge the need to look downwards as well as upwards".

But as columnist Chris Dunlavy warned in our sister paper, The Football League Paper, last Sunday, finding support from EFL clubs will be far from easy.

"It's only natural to ask why turkeys would vote for Christmas, and in the short-term it's a logical argument. Nobody wants to make themselves more vulnerable to relegation," Dunlavy writes.

"So precarious are finances throughout the EFL, however, that all but the biggest clubs could become a basket case, practically overnight. Remember Bolton or Derby?

"There's also a lot of money in non-league, meaning the clubs who come up - like Stockport and Wrexham - tend to push the incumbents down.

That makes relegation at least a reasonable possibility for the majority of EFL clubs and means three-up, three-down is very much in their long-term interest.
