FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of Rising Ballers Kensington for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Sebastian Frazer and his assistants Nigel Hickes and Derrick Coe.

As I predicted, it was a very tense evening last Tuesday where we managed to reach the final of the Middlesex FA Premier Cup final for the second consecutive season.

After 90 minutes, the semi-final tie against PFC Victoria ended 2-2 with Ben Bell netting twice, with both his goals being penalties.

The tie had to be decided on a penalty-spot contest, which we won 4-1 with our successful strikes coming from Shane Kettle, Adrin Tajic, Mark Richards and captain Trey Pender-Brown.

The final has been scheduled for Wednesday 2nd April at Hanwell Town and we will be facing Civil Service, who bagged a 3-2 win against AS London in their semi-final. The referee will be Adam Shimmin, who will be joined by his assistants Richard Coker and Simon Cunder. The fourth official will be Ahmed Rafique and Daryl Ann will be the Referee Liaison Officer.

I would guess the recently re-arranged home game with Woodley United on 1st April will now be postponed.

We will also need to sort out a new date for our trip to Colliers Wood United, which was called off on Saturday because of a waterlogged pitch.

Hopefully, after the recent rain, we will be able to play this evening and are expecting a tough test against a resolute Rising Ballers Kensington. Despite their current bottom position, they have picked up some notable results.

FIXTURE NEWS

Brook House's season will certainly stretch into April but there are currently no signs of three or four matches per week as has been the case in recent campaigns.

However, it is likely the season will continue until the end of April especially as Brook House has reached the final of the Middlesex County FA Premier Cup final.

The final against Civil Service has been scheduled for Wednesday 2nd April at Hanwell Town.

This means that the League game against Woodley United on 1st April has to be rescheduled again.

A new date has to be found for the away clash against Colliers Wood United, that was postponed on Saturday.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

Windsor & Eton are still in a strong position to lift the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One title after their 2-1 win against Bedfont on Saturday.

Jatinder Uddar gave the Royalists the lead in the 27th minute but Jason Kaate equalised on the stroke of half-time.

Adam Crocker bagged the winner for the leaders with 20 minutes remaining.

Penn & Tylers Green strengthened their play-off position with a 5-1 home victory over Hillingdon Borough.

It was a keenly-contested affair in the opening stages with David Pearce giving the hosts the lead after 16 minutes. Juan Molina equalised for Borough three minutes later.

James Dobson, Ben Sturgess, Chris Blunden and Jedidiah Layman all netted to clinch a comfortable win for Penn & Tylers Green.

CHERRY RED RECORDS COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE DIVISION ONE STRUCTURE 2024-25

There were a number of new sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One for the 2024-25 season.

A couple have slipped down from a higher level and it was not long ago Chalfont St Peter were a Step Four outfit.

Several clubs have moved up from Step Seven including the current leaders Windsor & Eton.

Now that is a name which once graced leagues such as the Isthmian in years gone by. But the current version is relatively new.

Another of the newcomers on their way up is Belstone and are currently in a play-off position.

PFC Victoria have made a steady start while Staines & Lammas are slowly finding their feet.

Both Colliers Wood United and Chalfont St Peter are still trying to find their feet at a lower level.

RISING BALLERS KENSINGTON

Rising Ballers Kensington slipped to the bottom of the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One table when fellow strugglers Woodley United bagged a 3-1 victory against Langley.

Although it has been a difficult season for the Ballers, they have shown improved form in recent weeks.

- Rising Ballers Kensington are currently ground sharing with North Greenford United.

I will make the tea and you bring the biscuits – that was the message from Dean Brennan last week when we asked the Barnet boss if he had time for a cuppa and a chat.

He had more to offer than that, throwing open the Hive's doors for a full day to see their preparations for a big National League clash with Solihull Moors.

It's what we all love about non-league football. Even at the top table, managers are so affording of their time and generosity.

Last season Barnet missed out in the play-offs – ironically to Solihull – and the previous year their hopes were ended by Boreham Wood.

But the Bees are edging ever closer and that relaxed feeling around the camp was clear to see.

Will they win every game between now and the end of the season? Almost certainly not and there will be bumps in the road. York City and Forest Green Rovers hold the same title ambitions and there are a whole number of clubs determined they hold League Two status next term.

Brennan, of course, has done the hard yards. He's turned down the chance to be an EFL manager already, staying loyal to Barnet in the hope he can be the manager to take them back into League Two.

Brennan, 44, knows what this part of the season is all about. He took Hemel Hempstead from the bottom of the Southern League into the Conference South in his first job and, after some big learnings at Billericay Town and Kingstonian, then won Step Two with Wealdstone.

Although an FA Trophy winner with Grays

Athletic, Brennan says he didn't live right to maximise his playing career. It's why he's so driven in his management career – one that actually started in Sunday League alongside his non-league playing days.

"I wanted to get used to speaking in front of a group," Brennan tells The NLP. "Because being a player and saying, 'Oh can we do this, gaffer?' it is totally different to standing up in a changing room and seeing 16 faces staring back at you. Now the squads are even larger.

"You saw me earlier doing video analysis and speaking in front of the players. It's understanding where they're sitting because it's important how you get that communication across.

"I don't want to be turning around saying, 'Matt, Matt, where are you Matt?' You look like a right idiot.

"Rather than knowing where you are and saying, 'Right, Matt, this is what we want you to do'.

"I know where everyone is sitting. All those things I learnt early and it's important because it's hard speaking in front of a group.

"If you're a con man, they will know you're a con man. Footballers know if you're spoofing them and bluffing them.

"I just wanted to get that right. So I did player-assistant at a couple of clubs.

"Way lower down at Dunstable Town and Aylesbury Vale, then I started doing my badges and Mr Boggins (Hemel chairman Dave Boggins) gave me a chance."
