FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the officials, players and supporters of London Samurai Rovers for this Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One match along with the referee Tom Flanagan and his assistants Luke Partington and Mohamed Kausar.

For the first time since the end of December, we managed to win two consecutive games when we defeated Molesey 3-2 on Tuesday evening.

However, the game did not do a lot for my nerves. As with the recent clash at Farm Park against Yateley United, we managed to concede two goals in the opening ten minutes before fighting back to clinch a 3-2 victory.

For the sake of confidence, with the Middlesex FA Premier Cup final looming, it would be good to get another win this afternoon. However, London Samurai Rovers are fighting for their lives to avoid relegation from the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One table. So, they will not make life easy for us.

Without doubt, everyone in the squad will be looking to impress our management team so they clinch a place in the cup final squad. We are keen to get some silverware and determined to defend successfully the trophy we won at Hanwell Town in April 2024.

We know our opponents Civil Service, who are currently fourth in Southern Amateur League Division One, are going to be tricky opponents. The showpiece game has been scheduled for Wednesday 2nd April at Hanwell Town. The referee will be Adam Shimmin, who will be joined by his assistants Richard Coker and Simon Cunder. The fourth official will be Ahmed Rafique and Daryl Ann will be the Referee Liaison Officer.

COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE REVIEW

The relegation-threatened sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One continue to make an impression.

Bottom side Woodley United pulled off an excellent 2-0 victory over FC Deportivo Galicia on Tuesday evening with Ty Moorcroft getting both goals.

Lowly Spartans Youth battled hard against high-flying Penn & Tylers Green and deserved their goalless draw.

However, the result of the evening was midtable Homer Green's 2-0 triumph over leaders Windsor & Eton.

Martin Lancaster opened the scoring for the hosts in the 40th minute and all the points were sealed when Lloyd Ronald Majaya netted in the 67th minute.

Hillingdon Borough eased to a 2-0 win over struggling Windsor.

CHERRY RED RECORDS COMBINED COUNTIES LEAGUE DIVISION ONE STRUCTURE 2024-25

There were a number of new sides in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One for the 2024-25 season.

A couple have slipped down from a higher level and it was not long ago Chalfont St Peter were a Step Four outfit.

Several clubs have moved up from Step Seven including the current leaders Windsor & Eton.

Now that is a name which once graced leagues such as the Isthmian in years gone by. But the current version is relatively new.

Another of the newcomers on their way up is Belstone and are currently in a play-off position.

PFC Victoria have made a steady start while Staines & Lammas are slowly finding their feet.

Both Colliers Wood United and Chalfont St Peter are still trying to find their feet at a lower level.

LONDON SAMURAI ROVERS

London Samurai Rovers have a good chance of surviving in the Cherry Red Records Combined Counties League Division One.

Rovers are two points from safety with 36 points from 37 games while immediately above them FC Deportivo Galicia have 38 points but from 43 games.

Although London Samurai Rovers suffered a 3-1 home defeat against Westside on Thursday evening, despite a goal from Takuo Jitsukawa, their form recently has been encouraging.

Time flies when you're having fun and that's certainly the case here at The NLP.

On Wednesday, 26th March we celebrated our 25th anniversary since the paper hit the newsstands.

In the years since, we've been lucky enough to have a front row seat to the heartbeat of English football.

We've seen an increased profile of this level of the game, a jump in professionalism, more than one restructure of the Pyramid and written about countless teams, players, managers, clubs, grounds – and results!

Stuart Pearce implored top clubs to unearth non-league treasures on the front cover of The NLP's first ever edition – and what good advice it has proved!

The England legend famously took that path himself, beginning at Wealdstone before going onto have a decorated career at the very top of the English game.

Pearce joined the Essex Senior League's Non-League Day groundhop last weekend to see the impact of the Premier League's Stadium Fund, which has distributed more than £207 million in grants to over 1,000 men's and women's clubs throughout the English Football League, National League and football pyramid.

The fund, like The NLP, is celebrating its 25th anniversary and Pearce smiled when looking back at issue one of The Non-League Paper.

"It's incredible – and 25 years later Dan Burn walks out in an England shirt," Pearce told The NLP. "That's a great point in case. A lot of players get released from academies and it can diminish their spirit but it shouldn't necessarily do that. In fact – and I got released from QPR as a 13-year-old – it should inspire you to prove people wrong.

"I think all of football was delighted to see Dan Burn arrive in an England shirt. For what he's doing for his club, a hometown boy if you like, and his pathway, it sends a great message out to youngsters that you don't have to be a superstar to start with. If you're determined, dogged, then you've got every opportunity."

Kevin Ellison was on target the weekend The Non-League Paper was launched...and he's still doing the business for Step Four Vauxhall Motors now at the age of 46!

The then-winger was on target for the Robins in a 1-1 draw with Kettering Town, one of the final points they picked up that season.

Ellison excelled, earning a move to Premier League Leicester City a year later, but a late slump saw Alty relegated after a season back in the Nationwide Conference.

"I'd have rather not had a good season and we stayed up," Ellison told The NLP.

"Getting back into the English pyramid was a big thing for me then, I'd been playing in the League of Wales.

"Altrincham gave me that great opportunity to go pro. I owe them a lot. You dream of it as a little boy.

"It didn't happen for me when I was younger because clubs were telling me I wasn't good enough, then five or six years ago they were bidding for me when they could have had me for free!"
