WELCOME NOTES

A warm welcome to Barnet for this Middlesex County FA Senior Cup Second Round tie at The Robert Parker Stadium along with the referee Huseyin Goeck and his assistants Pavel Krastev and Ricky Ansher.

This tie could be dubbed as Rhe Barrle of the Border Clubs. As we all know we are located on edge of Surrey. Similarly, those living in the town of Barnet are likely to have a Hertfordshire postal address.

However, The Bees' ground The Hive is in the heart of Middlesex in Edgware

Hendon, who have won the most county senior titles are definitely in Middlesex but also in the Borough of Barnet.

With little success in cup competitions this season, The Tangerines are keen to progress this evening especially as the current holders Southall play at our level.

Barnet have a home English Football League Two fixture tonight so The Bees may field academy players for this tie.

BARNET

Barnet FC were formed in 1888, having formerly been known as New Barnet FC (1885–1888) and Woodville FC (1882–1885).

They were known as “The Hillmen” and played in New Barnet before moving to Queens Road in 1889.

Initially they played friendly games before becoming inaugural members of the North London League in 1892–93.

They went on to have success in the North Middlesex League Division II (1894–95 runners-up), Division I (1895–96 runners-up) and the Premier Division (1896–97 champions).

Promoted to the London League Division II, Barnet became champions in 1897–98 and spent the following seasons in London League Division I before ceasing to exist in the 1901–02 season, Barnet Avenue & Barnet Alston (1901–1919) Two local clubs, Barnet Avenue FC (formed 1890) and Alston Works AFC (formed 1901) continued to attract support.

Barnet Avenue renamed themselves Barnet FC in 1904 and as staunch believers in the amateur game they shunned the London Football Authority in favour of the Amateur Football Association.

Alston Works AFC, later Barnet Alston FC,

● Barnet manager Dean Brennan became champions of the London League in 1906/7. In 1907 they moved to the club's current ground at Underhill, Barnet Lane.

Their first match was a 1–0 win over Crystal Palace FC on 14 September 1907. After merging with the Avenue team in 1912 they spearheaded the new Athenian League as Barnet and Alston FC.

After the First World War in 1919 they became the third instance of Barnet FC. This team continues today.

The Athenian league years (1912–1965) For over 50 years Barnet FC competed in the Athenian League. Inaugural members in 1912/13 they were league champions no fewer than seven times between 1919–1965 before turning professional in 1965.

FOCUS ON BARNET

If you have a conversation about Barnet, it will probably be about the 1990s era when they first entered the Football League.

The well known Stan Flashman was chairman, Barry Fry was manager and entertaining football was played.

However, darker times followed with Fry departing for pastures new and the club was in financial trouble despite being promoted to the third tier.

Things stabilised with the arrival of solvency expert David Buchler, whose team appointed former England, Liverpool and Tottenham goalkeeper Ray Clemence.

Barnet spent less time in the headlines and gradually drifted back into non-league football.

The Edgware-based side have slowly become a force again. Success came in the 2024-25 season when they clinched promotion back into the Football League.

After a season of consolidation at the higher level, Barnet are currently second in EFL Two.
